Question Submission (5 pts)

To insure you have read and understood the text, each of you will submit two questions for each chapter. These questions must meet the following criteria and be submitted in a text file.

Sources 1
Please identify the book and page where you got the question OR if the book is on-line identify the URL.
- Two Locations

Questions 2
The question should be a clearly stated, not-tricky, and relate to an important point in the chapter
- Two Question

Answers 2
Please list the correct answer and the first response so I don’t have to guess as to which one you think is correct. Please follow it with three other possible answers that are defiantly wrong but were discussed in the chapter.
- Responses
- Distracters

Example Question (You need two good ones)
SUBMITTED BY: John Smith
SOURCE: Web Style Guide pg 93
QUESTION: "Above the fold" as it relates to web design means what?
CORRECT: It’s the top part of the page that can be seen without scrolling.
WRONG: It’s the part of a web page that will print on a normal sheet of paper.
WRONG: The term “above the fold” does not relate to web design but to newspaper.
WRONG: It’s the top 1/3 portion of the home page when printed out.

Remember
Please put “DGM2740 Questions Ch X” in the email subject line.
Remember your name in the body of the email as shown in the example.
Questions are due the next day we meet for class. Questions submitted on time will receive full credit. (Late = 1 point off)
If you submit questions early, they will not be graded until I grade all questions for that chapter.